

I do not want the Federal Gov't regulations to change the way the State of Wisconsin has set up it's "No Call List" regulations. I like finally being able to enjoy my evenings without annoying telemarketing call interrupting me. If I want to contact a business to buy something, I will call them. I did not invite them into my home simply because I have a telephone number. Please do not interfere with the current Wisconsin "No Call" regulations.